

These kids are getting married!

Born in Ottawa, Ontario, to Chantal and David Parent, Josh grew up in the small town of Almonte, surrounded by family and friends. He is grateful for the love and support of those closest to him and is excited to begin this next chapter with Naya, bringing their families together as they build a future filled with love and happiness.

Born in Nepal to Swati and Rajiv Shah, Naya grew up travelling throughout the United States and Canada before her family eventually settled in Kitchener, Ontario. Over the years, she has built meaningful relationships that have shaped who she is today, and she looks forward to celebrating this special day with the people who have been part of her story so far.

They met in 2021 while they were both in university in Ottawa. Josh was in Mechanical Engineering at Carleton University, while Naya was in Statistics at the University of Ottawa.

Despite the school rivalry, they hit it off. Their first date was at the Ottawa Christmas Market.

And they’ve made it a tradition to go back every year since.

They quickly became a big part of each other's lives.

Meeting each other's families.

After completing their degrees

they decided to adopt a beautiful little baby girl named Hazel.

Who is always so well behaved.

Over the years they've grown a love for the outdoors,

traveling,

boardgames: where Josh plays to win, Naya plays by her own rules, and Hazel finds things to steal and chew.

And of course, trying new places to eat!

Their favourite date spot is breakfast at Sunset Grill.

They got engaged in July 2025 in Elora, Ontario, with family there to celebrate.

And now, they can’t wait to celebrate with all of you in June!
